Kevin's Webmaster Report

Kevin continues to improve our website.

Doug's Treasurer Report

The Treasurer's report looks good, there were some member renewals, Treasurers report will be approved on-line as there was not a quorum. Everyone in attendance agreed with the numbers.

Jim's Scholarship Report

Sent 12 write-ups of recipients for Scholarship monies. It is recommended that we publish 2 per month in the Bridge. First 2 will be published in November. Jim approached Mr. Mahoney during the meeting with Garrett about increasing the amount of dollars that Garrett gives to the scholarship fund, he said he would think about it but was not interested in addressing at the meeting.

Oktoberfest Report

The Oktoberfest was a great success and enjoyed by all. There were raves about the brats and the beans, some went back for seconds. We had an ice breaker which it looked like all of the attendees were playing. 5 completed the ice breaker and were put in the door prize drawing which already included everyone that was in attendance. We had two drawings for the 50/25/25 and each recipient received $27.50. There were 4 $25.00 door prizes that were won, 1 went to one of the ice breaker players and the other 3 went to other attendees.

Doug received more information on the RTVOS event. The organizers did not want us to extend the deadline for sign-up.

Diane talked about the Christmas event. Names of families have not arrived as yet, they are running behind because of new employees. Diane has received a few checks for the event, but we have a long way to go. Diane is hoping for 75-80, that will get us to the break even point.

Rick was not available, but an ad will be run in the Bridge so people will know that a list will be kept of interested parties who still want to tour Amazon, those people on the list will be called when he can arrange something with Amazon. If they are not available and cannot make the time he books, they will be left on the list for next available tour and he will fill the tour with others who have signed up.

New business:

We talked about getting new members, there was no conclusion.

Survey to members, what are they interested in. Kevin has a running list of possible events on the internet.

Mary adjourned the meeting at 2:00 PM.
