

The Vice President (From the Bylaws)

The Vice President will act at the discretion of the President and will assist the President in the operation of the Club. The Vice President will perform the duties of the President when the President is unable to do so.